"Dear Prasana,

Greetings from the Sea and Sand. I hope this email finds you well. Thank you for bringing this to my attention. After cross checking with accounts department we have realized that this payment was made against a local reef fish purchase against to Mr. Hussain Mohammed we are hereby attaching the invoice for your reference. This is inadvertent mistake, kindly arrange to reverse the payment at the earliest and confirm the same.

Kindly note that in our 10 years relationship history with Ayada, we have never offered any gifts or cash to your staff which may act ion our favour for the business to happen. We have always worked keeping up with our ethical code of conduct, also the above-mentioned incident is against our company policy. Apologies for inconvenience caused.

Should you need further clarification, please fell free to revert back.

Regards,

Cathay Xavier"
